YOU OWE CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTING TAX IF:

You are in the construction business in the City of Scottsdale. A contractor is considered to be in business in Scottsdale when the construction job is in Scottsdale. Contractors report the income from each job to the Arizona city in which the job is located, not to the city where the contractor is based.

TAX RATE ON CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTING

The Scottsdale tax rate is 1.4% of the taxable income.

WHAT IS CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTING?

Construction contracting includes construction, remodeling, repairs, demolition, etc., to real property. There does not have to be a contract for the work. A construction contractor who provides only labor is subject to the same provisions as one who provides both materials and labor. Remediation Contracting is not subject to the tax.

Examples of taxable contracting activity include:

- Construction or demolition of a building
- Road construction
- Land excavation and landscaping
- Installation of permanently attached equipment or fixtures to real property
- Sales and installation of floor covering
- Home remodeling
- Repairs to a building
- Construction for a government agency (including work for the City of Scottsdale)
- Construction for a church or nonprofit organization

Examples of items that are $\underline{not}$ considered construction contracting:

- Remediation Contracting
- Landscape maintenance, lawn mowing (exempt service)
- Installation of drapes and miniblinds (retail)
- Plug-in kitchen equipment (retail)
- Tangible personal property included in a construction contract that would otherwise be exempt if purchased by the specified entity. ie: non-profit qualified healthcare providers

ARE SUBCONTRACTORS TAXED?

Income from acting as a subcontractor is exempt from the tax. To qualify for this exemption, the subcontractor must obtain the City Privilege License number of the construction contractor or speculative builder stating that they are liable for the tax. The City has Exemption Certificates available that you may use to document these exemptions. (A sample is provided in the back of this pamphlet.)

Contractors who work for a property owner, not another contractor or speculative builder, will be considered to be the contractor for the job and responsible for the related tax.

ARE OWNER-BUILDERS TAXED?

Owners who are improving real property for themselves may or may not be the party liable for paying the tax on the construction.

A homeowner who is building his own principal residence would not normally be the liable party. Each of the contractors or suppliers who provide materials and/or services would be liable based on their income from the job. However, the owner may be liable for some additional tax if the property is offered for sale or sold prior to occupying the home for at least six (6) months.

Many Owner-Builders become Speculative Builders and are subject to tax based on the sales price of the real property. A Speculative Builder is defined as:

An "Owner-Builder" who sells or contracts to sell, at any time, improved real property consisting of:

- A) custom, model, or inventory homes regardless of the stage of completion of such homes; or
- B) improved residential or commercial lots without a structure, or

An Owner-Builder who sells or contracts to sell improved real property, other than real property specified in (A) and (B) above:

- A) prior to completion or
- B) before expiration of twenty-four (24) months after the improvements of the real property sold are substantially complete.

An "owner-builder" who is building a commercial structure for sale would be liable for tax based on the property's sales price. If the property is not sold within 24 months of the date it was completed, the tax would be due on the 25th month following completion and would be based on the cost of construction.

The City has an Owner-Builder Declaration which should be completed at the time a building permit is issued. This declaration clarifies the owner's intent with respect to Privilege Tax. See sample form in the back of this pamphlet.

GROSS INCOME

Contractors are taxable based on their gross income from the contracting business. Normally this will be either the total amount of the contract or the sales price of the property when it is sold. The income is taxable regardless of whether it includes both labor and materials or just labor.

Sales of improved real property such as subdivision lots are taxable as Speculative Builder Sales.

Contractors may report on a progressive billing basis or on a cash receipt basis. Home builders and speculative builders report the total selling price at the time of close of escrow or transfer of title, whichever occurs first.

The City does not acknowledge artificially contrived transactions or sales which do not reflect the fair market value of the property transferred. Sales to a "Marketing Arm" would be taxed at the final sales price to the actual consumer or the fair market value of the property transferred; whichever is higher.

EXEMPTIONS AVAILABLE FOR ITEMS YOU PURCHASE

There is an exemption from the tax on retail sales for materials which a contractor or speculative builder purchases for incorporation into a building or improvement. This exemption does not apply to:

- Furniture, construction equipment or tools sold or leased to a contractor or speculative builder.
- Any other tangible personal property which is not incorporated into the actual improvements.
- Materials purchased directly by an owner-builder.

DEDUCTIONS

The following are typical deductions subtracted from gross income to arrive at the taxable income:

- Privilege Tax collected
- 35 percent standard deduction
- Exempt subcontracting
- Out-of-City contracting
- Installation, assembly, repair or maintenance of incomeproducing capital equipment
- Installation, assembly, repair or maintenance of clean rooms

If you have charged your customer Privilege Tax separately, and it is included in gross income, you may deduct it.

If you have not separately charged your customer Privilege Tax, you may "factor" your Privilege Tax. This means that the total contract price includes Privilege Tax and you can compute the amount of tax and deduct it. Formulas for factoring tax are included in the back of this pamphlet. These factors change based on any changes to the combined state, county and city tax rate. Make sure you use the factor that corresponds to the tax rate in effect for your transaction. Computer spreadsheet templates are also available through our office.

A standard 35% deduction is allowed for all income taxable as contracting. The 35% standard deduction should be computed after the Privilege Tax deduction has been deducted.

Note: The City of Scottsdale does not allow a land deduction.

What is Remediation Contracting?

The following activities are considered remediation contracting and are exempt:

- (1) Excavation, transportation, treatment, and/or disposal of contaminated soil for purposes of site remediation (rather than characterization);
- (2) Installation of groundwater extraction and/or injection wells for purposes of groundwater remediation;
- (3) Installation of pumps and piping into groundwater extraction wells for remediation purposes;
- (4) Installation of vapor extraction wells for the purpose of soil or groundwater remediation;
- (5) Construction of remediation systems, such as groundwater treatment plants, vapor extraction systems, or air injection systems;
- (6) Connection of remediation systems to utilities;
- (7) Abandonment of groundwater or vapor extraction wells;
- (8) Removal/demolition of remediation systems;
- (9) Capping/closure construction activities; and
- (10) Service or handling charges for subcontracted remediation contracting activities.

PRIVILEGE TAX CAN APPLY TO CERTAIN FORECLOSED PROPERTY

The City of Scottsdale follows the model cities tax code, which was adopted in 1987. One of the provisions of this code is a section that applies to recently improved foreclosed property such as a new commercial or residential structure. The code section 595(c) reads as follows:

• Any person who purchases, or who acquires by foreclosure, by sale under trust deed or warranty deed in lieu of foreclosure, or by any other method, improved real property or a portion of improved real property for which the Privilege Tax imposed by this Chapter has not been paid shall be responsible for payment of such tax as a speculative builder or owner builder, as provided in Sections 416 and 417.

Section 416 and 417 relate to the tax imposed on the sale of recently improved real property. Examples would be speculative homes, model homes and commercial buildings where the original owner would have been responsible for the tax imposed under these sections but avoids the tax due to the foreclosure transaction. In this circumstance the party acquiring the foreclosed property would be responsible for the tax if any is due. The tax is triggered upon acquisition, based on the bid price, and is payable at the time the property is subsequently sold.

Only a very small percentage of foreclosure transactions are impacted by this particular tax since it only applies to newly constructed properties in which no tax was paid.

FACTORING PRIVILEGE TAX FOR CONTRACTING ACTIVITY WITH LAND INVOLVED

The following formulas can be used for factoring Privilege Tax on contracting and speculative building activity for jobs in Scottsdale. These factors are derived from the combined state, county and city tax rate of 7.7%. Two factors are required, one for state and county which allow a land deduction; and the other for Scottsdale which does not allow a land deduction.

To determine the combined tax due for all jurisdictions:

- 1) Multiply the gross receipts by the rate .04766440
- 2) Multiply the land value by the rate .03899815
- 3) Subtract the result of step 2 from step 1.

The result obtained from step 3 represents the combined tax due for the city, county and state, and provides the deduction for factored Privilege Tax (Deduction Code E). The following steps are needed to properly complete the tax return.

- 4) Subtract the amount derived from step 3 from the gross receipts.
- 5) Multiply the result in step 4 by .35. The result is the 35% standard deduction for the City. (Deduction Code N)
- 6) To compute taxable income, subtract the amounts derived from step 3 and step 5 from the gross receipts.
- 7) Multiply the result of step 6 by .014 to determine the amount of Scottsdale City tax due.

Note: For improved lot sales replace steps 1 through 3 with "Multiply the gross receipts by the rate .00901794." This will provide the amount of City tax due. Since improved lot sales are only taxed by the City, the state and county taxes do not factor into the calculations.

If you use a personal computer and have access to a spreadsheet program you may obtain templates from our office which greatly simplify the factoring process.

Example: Gross Selling Land Value	Price (Gross Receipts)	100,000 30,500
Step 1	100,000 x .04766440 =	4,766.44
Step 2	30,500 x .03899815 =	1,189.44
Step 3	4,766.44 - 1,189.44 = (Deduction Code E)	3,577.00
Step 4	100,000 - 3,577.00 =	96,423.00
Step 5	96,423.00 x .35 = (Deduction Code N) 3	33,748.05 35%
Step 6	100,000 - 3,577.00 - 33	,748.05 = 62,674.95
Step 7	62,674.95 x .014 =	877.45
On your Tax R	eturns:
Gross Receipts	City 100,000.00	State 100,000.00
